Thank you for joining us at Maple Rock Stables, we are so excited to meet new faces and see some familiar ones. It is a great pleasure to be teaching the kids all about our equine passion and having lots of fun and giggles along the way.

Sincerely, Heidi Martin owner and coach

I have read and agree to all payment requirements and barn rules. I give consent to have photos of my child be taken and posted on the Maple Rock's Facebook page where I can copy and share them with family and friends.

Riding Camp Days

- ✓ Riding boots - a leather boot that covers the ankle and has a small heel
ex. cowboy boots, blunt stones
- ✓ Certified riding helmet - this is required by law for ages 18 & under
- ✓ Dress for the weather - layers are best. Extra socks are always a good idea, heat packs for hands and feet, snow pants welcome
- ✓ Lunch, snacks & water bottle

Vaulting Camp Day

- ✓ easy to move in athletic clothing
ex. yoga pants - layers are best
 - ✓ NO hoodies or baggy clothing
 - ✓ Water shoes are required for on the horses
 - ✓ Hair must be tied up and out of face
 - ✓ Lunch, snacks & water bottle
- there are no helmets used in vaulting if you have any questions or concerns with this please contact Heidi

Trick Riding Camp

- ✓ Same as above - running shoes (we typically wear wrestling shoes for trick, or pumas are also great)
